Filler #4

Oof. Hey all.
A long, hectic week has caught up with me and I'm pretty under the weather. I'm going to take a break this week so that I can recover and play catch-up.

In the meantime though, please check out these super rad commissions I got over the past few months from supporting Enrique Bolatre's Patreon! They are all so good!

You can check out Enrique's Patreon and even commission him yourself at patreon.com/nighthead
Seeya next week with a real fun new episode!
